Fuel thinning, fire risk management and Old Growth discussion

Discussion and comments regarding fuel thinning, fire risk management and Old Growth harvesting

The Committee participated in an open discussion regarding fuel thinning, fire risk management and Old Growth. Thoughts were shared on thinned forests vs unthinned, the difference between commercial thinning and fuel thinning, and the prescription for seasonally dry forests. Discussion moved to what thinning does to bike trails and erosion of the soil around the trails. The committee felt treatment longevity needs to be reviewed around trails and recreation infrastructure. The committee discussed the results of R. Millikin's findings shared at the Sept 8 meeting, and FireSmarting neighborhoods that are high risk. Some committee members shared that they agreed with thinning around infrastructure, however thinning away from infrastructure may need to be reexamined due to concerns over effectiveness, impacts on the forest and the large budget required.
