SCHEDULE E

DELEGATED DEVELOPMENT VARIANCE PERMIT CRITERIA AND GUIDELINES

A. A variance is minor if it varies:

1. any of the following provisions of the Zoning Bylaw:
 - (a) siting and design standards for off-street parking or loading spaces;
 - (b) regulations for tandem parking;
 - (c) regulations for the siting or height of solid waste separation and storage facilities;
 - (d) site coverage regulations, provided that maximum site coverage is not increased by more than 25%;
 - (e) building setback regulations, provided that a required setback is not reduced by more than 25%;
 - (f) exceptions to setback regulations for projections in Section 7 of Part 5 with the exception of foundations or supports for such projections as described in subsection 7(1) of Part 5, and provided that the variance deals only with the extent of a projection and does not provide an exception for a type of projection that is not provided for in the bylaw;
 - (g) building height regulations, provided that permitted height is not increased by more than 10%; or
2. a provision of Sign Bylaw No. 558, 1987 that restricts the number, size, type, form, appearance or location of a sign.

B. The General Manager and Director of Planning must consider the following general guidelines in deciding whether to issue a Development Variance Permit:

1. The variance should be consistent with the goals, objectives and policies in the Official Community Plan and any other relevant Council-approved municipal policy documents.
2. The variance application should be supported by a sound justification based on the applicant's inability to reasonably develop the site in an efficient and effective manner while complying with bylaw requirements, or on the provision of a benefit to the community or adjacent properties in the form of a preferable development outcome that is attributable to the variance.
3. The variance should not defeat the express or implicit intent of the bylaw requirement or restriction being varied.
4. The variance should not impose any additional costs on the Resort Municipality

- such as additional cost to provide services to the development site or adjacent properties.
5. The variance should not create or exacerbate any risk to public safety.
 6. The variance should enable the applicant's development to do one or more of the following:
 - (a) complement the streetscape or neighbourhood;
 - (b) work with the topography of the site without major site preparation or earthworks;
 - (c) maintain or enhance desirable site features such as natural vegetation, trees and rock outcrops;
 - (d) use superior building siting in relation to light access, reducing building energy requirements;
 - (e) use superior building siting in relation to the privacy of occupants and neighbours; and
 - (f) preserve or enhance views from neighbouring buildings and sites.
 7. The variance should not result in a significant negative impact on the streetscape or neighbourhood and should incorporate mitigation measures to reduce any identified negative impact. Potential negative impacts to be considered include:
 - (a) inconsistency of the development with neighbourhood character;
 - (b) increased apparent building bulk as viewed from the street or surrounding neighbourhood;
 - (c) extensive additional site preparation or earthworks;
 - (d) substantial impact on the use or enjoyment of adjacent land such as reduction of sunlight access or privacy or obstruction of views; and
 - (e) impact on services such as roads, utilities and snow clearing operations.

C. The General Manager and Director of Planning must consider the following guidelines in deciding whether to issue a Development Variance Permit in respect of any of the particular types of regulations indicated below:

Sign Regulations

1. A variance of the number, size or location of signs should not result in a significant increase in the total number or sign area of on-site signage or disrupt the aesthetic character of the development or adjacent neighbourhood.
2. A variance should not adversely impact neighbouring properties, for example by increasing exposure to artificial light.

Off-Street Parking Design Standards

1. A variance of the design standard for off-street parking spaces should not create or exacerbate any safety hazard related to the operation of motor vehicles or other forms of transportation.

Solid Waste Separation and Storage Facility Regulations

1. A variance should not be approved without consultation with the operator of the facility and the municipal engineer to ensure operational feasibility.
2. A variance should not result in an increase in disruptive intermittent noise affecting building occupants or neighbours.

Building Siting Regulations

1. A variance should not reduce the livability of existing residential units or units in the development. The applicant should demonstrate with appropriate drawings and calculations that the variance would not significantly interfere with privacy or access to sunlight.

Building Height Regulations

1. The variance application should be supported with drawings and calculations illustrating shadow and view impacts of the proposed variance, including impacts on public spaces such as parks and green spaces.
2. The application should be assessed in relation to compatibility with both existing adjacent uses and uses permitted or contemplated by the Zoning Bylaw and the Official Community Plan.
