

Dear Mayor and Council,

Re: International Women's Day

In support of International Women's Day, Resort Municipality of Whistler, Women Inspiring Leadership Development (WILD) is requesting that the Council proclaim March 8th as International Women's Day. WILD is also requesting that the Fitzsimmons Covered Bridge be illuminated in Purple.

Since March 8th, 1913, International Women's Day has been celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women.

International Women's Day shines a light on efforts to advance gender equality in communities across the country. International Women's Day empowers women and girls to equally participate in economic, social and political life benefits for people of all genders.

International Women's Day supports increased economic prosperity, promotes peace and security, upholds fairness and justice in our society, and ultimately creates a happier and healthier community in Whistler.

Sincerely,

WILD
4325 Blackcomb Way,
Whistler, BC,
